

REAL ESTATE LICENSE TYPES & ROLES DEFINED

Salesperson

A licensed salesperson can perform real estate services only under the supervision of a licensed broker

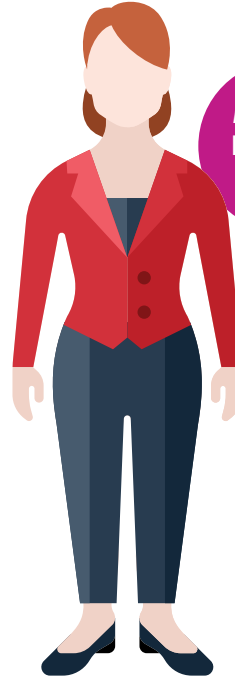

Michigan
Salesperson
License

- Must be an individual person
- 40hrs+ professional education
- Application
- Exam
- Recertification every 3 years

Associate Broker

A licensed broker who chooses to work under the supervision of another licensed broker (in a corporation or partnership) and can be either principal or non-principal brokers

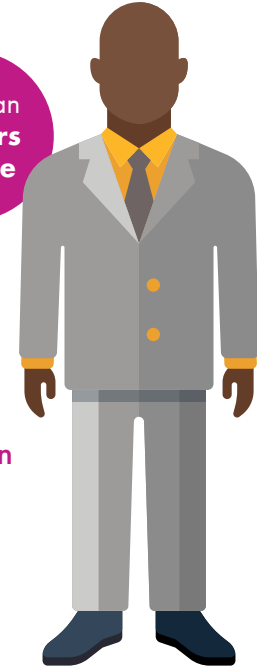

Michigan
Brokers
License

- Can be an individual person
- Can also be an entity (such as a partnership or corporation)
- All salesperson training plus:
90hrs+ of professional education
3yrs experience
- Application
- Exam
- Recertification every 3 years

Broker

A person (or entity) who performs real estate services for others for compensation and may supervise other real estate licensees

Michigan
Brokers
License