

Michigan Real Estate License Eligibility Requirements

To obtain any Michigan real estate license, an individual must meet the following eligibility requirements:

- Be at least 18 years of age.
- Be of good moral character, which requires attesting to the following statement: "Good Moral Character Question - I have the ability and will serve the public in a fair, honest, and open manner. If I have had a judgment of guilt in a criminal proceeding or a civil action against me, I am rehabilitated, or the substance of my former offense is not reasonably related to the occupation or profession for which I am seeking a license."
- Obtain the required education.
- Pass the required state exam.
- Submit any documentation the department requests.
- For a broker only, obtain the necessary experiential requirements.
- For a broker only, any individual who has been convicted of embezzlement or misappropriation of funds cannot be licensed as a real estate broker in Michigan.

Anyone who doesn't meet all of these requirements is NOT eligible to obtain a real estate license in Michigan.

Example

Michigan salesperson Denny has looked forward to obtaining his broker's license for the last three years, so he's dismayed to learn that due to a past embezzlement conviction, he is ineligible to obtain that license.
