

"Nice Couple" Two Video Transcript

Let's look at the pair used in this test.

Leasing agent: Hello, come in. Is that your application?

The couple hands over their application

Leasing agent: Okay. Let me take a look. Let's see. It says here that you're both professionals, work full time, combined salary of $125,000, great credit scores. But it's too bad. You're not quite what we're looking for. Wish I could be of more help, but your combined salary just doesn't match our income requirements. And of course with the baby coming-I doubt you'll be going back to work, will you?

Couple: Now wait just a minute! That's really none of your business.

Leasing agent: I'm sorry you wasted your time. Best of luck to you.
