

Recommendations for the Future of Fair Housing

Reinvest in the Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity by:

- Gaining Congressional funding for at least 750 full time employees to administer the Fair Housing Act
- Gaining Congressional funding of at least $52 million for the Fair Housing Initiative Program (FHIP)

Increase Credit Access and Positively Affect Communities by:

- Accepting the use of alternative credit scoring mechanisms (e.g. VantageScore), to better assess lender risk for potential borrowers of color
- Convincing lenders to underwrite to the full investor credit box, particularly considering the safer post-bust lending environment
- Increasing fair lending enforcement
- Developing more creative lending programs
- Finding ways to end the over-reliance on credit scores
- Evaluating market penetration of Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac in communities of color
- Requiring high-quality credit counseling for first-time borrowers and borrowers who have recovered from past credit blemishes

[Source: Where You Live Matters, 2015 Fair Housing Trends Report. Created by the National Fair Housing Alliance.]