

Florida RV Park Verdict

On September 30, 2015, a complaint was filed with the U.S. Department of Justice alleging that Carl Bruckler, the manager of Southwind Village RV Park, discriminated against African-Americans.

The Verdict

The Justice Department found Southwind Village and Carl Bruckler to be in violation of fair housing laws protecting race and color. Southwind Village was ordered to create a settlement fund of $35,000 as compensation to victims of its discriminatory practices. It was also ordered to pay a civil penalty of $25,000 to the U.S. government. Additionally, Southwind Village was ordered to make sure African-Americans are allowed to rent RV lots and to provide periodic reports as proof.

[Source: U.S. Department of Justice Office of Public Affairs. www.justice.gov]